Ogden's Two Victories Placed Them in the Lead Again.

MINERS AT THE BOTTOM.

Salt Lakers and Railways Will Meet Again This Afternoon—Park City Here Tomorrow.

Large chunks of gloom hangs around the camps of the Park City and Salt Lake fans, while in Ogden it is one continual round of supernatural song. And why is it so? Because, once more Father

Gimlin and his faithful band have come out of the labyrinth, have gone through the tortuous paths beset with perils and dangers from Alpha to Omega, from darkness to the broad light of day. Their two victories over Park City and the Railways placed them in the lead and they are now

VICTORY FOR RAILWAYS.

Stopped Salt Lakers Battering Streak and Won in a Walk.

Kidder, the Old Reliable, caused the downfall of the Salt Lakers yesterday afternoon, and won his game with perfect ease. Before the five works began, Capt. Risley cautioned Kidder to keep out of it as the Salt Lakers might do him mischief. Kidder was thinking of the batting streak his pet had on in the morning, but Kidder only smiled and remarked that if there was going to be any game, he would endeavor to be present. He was.

He gave the white winged ones to understand from the start that they might find along with a couple of dozen hits, as the Salt Lakers might do him mischief. Kidder was thinking of the batting streak his pet had on in the morning, but Kidder only smiled and remarked that if there was going to be any game, he would endeavor to be present. He was.

MASSACRE AT OGDEN.

Gimlin's Made Seventeen Circles Around the Diamond.

While the Salt Lake fans were battling the ball all over the field yesterday morning, and making the Miners feel like the small boy who lost his candy, the Salt Lake fans were making the Miners feel like the small boy who lost his candy.

gun, and five times he made his guests bat ragged holes in the shrinking atmosphere. He knew the warriors behind him and they knew him too good a lead. J. M. Cannon, Bernice's owner, protested the race. The judges called the jockeys up and after a short conference decided that the fouling was intentional, but disqualified Jack and gave third money to Stella W.

Following is a summary of the events:

OGDEN'S BIG SCORE.

Twenty-six to Three in the Afternoon Game.

It took three men and a boy all their time to count the runs made by the Ogdenites in their camp yesterday afternoon, during an argument with the Parkites. They pranced around the diamond so many times they were ashamed of themselves and it is said they made fitting apologies to Capt. Redmond after the game was over. Verily it was a case of the survival of the fittest.

Only three times did the Park City connect with the home plate.

The venerable and ancient Father Gimlin entrenched himself in the box and twirled for the delectation of the fanonians assembled. He had the enemy at his mercy but mercy showed not he. Six tiny singles and so well scattered they have been discovered yet, were all the niggardly chief gave. Ogden's errors were entirely responsible for the runs of the visitors. Pendergraft and Redmond pitched for the miners, and they were assaulted and killed until the agony ended in the ninth.

A feature was a marvelous stop of Casey's in the fourth. He fell on the ball in a prayerful attitude and while on his knees he got the ball to first in time to bench the runner. It would consume too much printers' ink to go into details of the hits made by Ogden. They came so fast they sounded like unto a flock of chickens picking corn off the barn floor. Here is the score:

BASEBALL AT LAGOON.

Macabees Pluck the Feathers from the Eagles.

Probably the most one sided game ever played in the State was that at Lagoon yesterday between the Macabees and Eagles. The former won by a score of 49 to 9. The Macabees made so many runs they almost turned black and blue and were seriously considering a proposition to borrow some wheels to ride around the diamond.

Every man took all the hits he wanted, but the Eagles could not have hit the broad arrow of a barn if they had been hit by the force of a steam hammer. The Macabees were so well scattered they have been discovered yet, were all the niggardly chief gave. Ogden's errors were entirely responsible for the runs of the visitors. his old manager as an hour before he jumped off the train Brady had boarded a train for New York.

Jeffries will place himself under the charge of Billy Delaney as soon as he reaches the Pacific coast, peaking of his future plans last night he said.

My contract with Brady expires June 28th, and after that date Billy Delaney will look after my interest. Now in regard to myself I intend leaving for California with the "Kid," probably tomorrow night. I will go to Los Angeles first and then to San Francisco to see what is doing in the fighting game.

I am anxious to engage in several fights during the next year and if I win, of which I have no doubt, I will quit the game. I have been offered a good purse to fight Rubin or Sharkey in "Frisco."

ABOUT THE WHEEL.

Like arrow to the target driven, Like swallow circling in the heaven, Like lightning from the storm cloud driven.

My silver wheel.

With rocking hammock's easy swing, With eagle's tidings power of wing, As noisless as the panther's spring, So goes my wheel.

Its cushioned tire, I love so well, I love its clear-toned call of bell, Its soft light speeding down the dell, My bonny wheel.

When sunset rays have kissed the world I hie me to my charming girl, On love's swift messenger I whirl, My Cupid wheel.

She mounts her wheel, away we fly, And all our world's my love and I, The dearest world beneath the sky, Upon our wheels.

When springtime's fair on wood and lea, With blood red and anemone, We journey off their grace to see, My wheel and I.

By many a violet-haunted way, Where greenwood shadows dance and play, We linger, in the balmy May, My wheel and I.

Or through the moonlit woods we go, Led by the firefly's fitful glow, To where the water lilies blow, I guide my wheel.

When autumn balm is in the air, By golden rod and aster fair, We travel far from home and care, Untrailing wheel.

The dropping nuts on still leaves fall, From tree to tree the squirrels call, The chinkmunk's on the stone fence wall, Who would not wheel?

Even when the winter's icy chill With sudden chain has caught the rill, Swift cycling brings its pleasures still, To one awhile.

Ah, then, indeed, an ideal time To seek a sunny Southern clime, Where orange blows, the fragrant lime, But take your wheel.

On sea-beat coast where soft winds play, Where white sand hardens 'neath the spray, Of gentle tides, awash away, There ride your wheel.

To paint her charms, 'twere vain to try, Or voice her ocean's lullaby, Sweet fragrance of the earth and sky, Fair Florida.

Her inland homes bedged with the rose, One liners there, nor cares, nor knows, But drinks her lotus cup which flows, The world forgot.

But on her coast the world's awake! Young, old, the grave, the gay, all feel The magic of the steel or steel, On silver strand!

Oh, wooing witch of every lane, From mountain side to rolling main, Enchanters of the hill and plain, The wheel, the wheel.

—M. M. McClelland, Lexington, Ky.

Mr. W. J. Baxter of North Brook, N. C., says he suffered with piles for fifteen years. He tried many remedies with no results until he used Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve and that quickly cured him.—F. C. Schramm.

The Woman's Choice

Will She Choose Dr. Experiment or Dr. Experience.

Put the question plainly to any woman: Will you choose the experienced or the experimenting doctor? and there's no doubt about the answer. What woman wants to be the subject of experiments, to drag out weary months while the unskilled practitioner vainly tries various medicines, and charges the sick woman liberally for his experimental failures?

Yet willing or unwilling a great many women have to go through just such an ordeal. Their disease baffles the local physician. He tries all he knows to effect a cure and fails. Sometimes this goes on for months, sometimes for years, the woman meantime suffering daily torments.

Perhaps the difference between the "doctoring" of experiment and experience cannot be better shown than in the following statement:

"For seven years I was confined to bed most of the time," writes Mrs. M. P. Davis, of Honaker, Russell Co., Va. "I had four doctors and they said I could not be cured. I had ulceration of uterus and female weakness, so I could not stand on my feet but a short time; had bearing-down sensation, pain in the small of my back. My stomach and bowels, also legs and feet would swell, and everything I ate hurt me. I could not sleep well, was so short of breath I could not lie down at night, had soreness and tenderness over uterus, troubled with palpitation of heart, and suffered with headache all the time. I would get blind and have fainting spells, had dark rings around my eyes and my eyes seemed bloodshot, suffered from painful periods; could not lie on my left side. I would have numb spells, pains around my heart every morning, my lungs hurt me a great deal, and my shoulders too. I would spit up blood at times, memory was poor, hearing was bad, hands and feet were cold all the time, and I had chills and night-sweats. After the doctors said I could not be cured I got hold of one of Dr. Pierce's Memorandum Books and read how he had cured so many patients afflicted like I was so I thought his medicine might help me. I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice and he sent me a very encouraging letter in reply, advising me to take his 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' I got two bottles and used these and felt much better. I sent and got six bottles more. I can now work all day and not feel tired at night. I can sleep all night and can eat anything I want at any time. I feel better than I ever did. Can do all kinds of work in the house and out doors too. I am sorry I did not take Dr. Pierce's medicine when I first began to have poor health. I could have saved what I paid to humbugs. My friends say that I do not look like the same woman. When I commenced your medicine I only weighed one hundred pounds. Now I weigh one hundred and forty. I thank you a thousand times for your good medicine and your kind advice. I used four bottles of Dr. Pierce's 'Medical Discovery,' four of 'Favorite Prescription' and two vials of your 'Pleasant Pellets.'"

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE between experiment and experience in treating womanly diseases? The difference between success and failure. The difference between health and sickness, happiness and misery. The reason that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures so many women is that it is a medicine which is the product of years of experience in the treatment and cure of womanly diseases. It is a medicine made to do certain things and it does what it is made to do. Every woman understands this. The fine points of this difference between experiment and experience. When the housewife engages a cook she demands experience. She does not want a cook who is experimenting with unfamiliar recipes. The experienced man might say, "Why, are the cook books?" It tells how to make anything. All you've got to do is to measure and mix as it instructs and you can't come out wrong. Can't you? The wife knows very much better than that. Given the best recipe in the world it takes experience to make a success of it. The difference between the success of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and the failure of other medicines is the difference of experience. It is no experiment to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of womanly diseases. The experience of thousands of women proclaims that it makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Thousands of grateful letters have been written to Dr. Pierce. They cover cases of every form of womanly disease which is medically curable. They show that "Favorite Prescription" is a perfect regulator, that it dries encumbering fluids; that it heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. They prove "Favorite Prescription" is the best preparative for maternity, that it keeps the mother strong and healthy and makes the baby's advent practically painless.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is privately read, privately answered and womanly confidences are guarded by the same strict professional privacy which protects the womanly confidence made in a personal consultation with Dr. Pierce. ## READING THE HAND.

Professor Sterling has already read the palms of a number of leading citizens. A number of them will be published from day to day. Out of this list the following have been selected for today's issue:

PALMER HOUSE Formerly the St. James Hotel, 325 South Main Street. (near Third South St.)

PROFESSOR STERLING THE CELEBRATED PALMIST AND PSYCHOLOGIST

who is now in the city and is recognized by press and public everywhere. All are pleased and delighted with his readings. Multitudes visit his parlors daily and are happy. Palmistry is an exact science, and it excites the wonder and admiration of the most skeptical. Professor Sterling can be consulted on all matters pertaining to the welfare of the human race. Your hands reveal all questions of life, pertaining to marriage, sickness, death, changes, travel, divorces, separations, lawsuits, business transactions, wills, debts, mortgages, lost or absent friends, mining ventures, etc. Consult Professor Sterling. He is acknowledged the greatest living authority on palmistry and all his work is done in manuscript form, and is strictly confidential.

Office hours are 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. daily and Sundays. Palmistry has been reduced to a science, and following are some of the results obtained by Professor Sterling of well known persons in this city:

JOHN OLSEN, Engineer. Your tact is remarkable, you seldom make mistakes and are considered very sincere. C. W. LUFF, Bookkeeper. You are versatile, impulsive, ardent and possess elasticity of spirit. ED. MEHLINGER, Salesman. The mount of Jupiter is highly developed in your hand indicating ambition. You are inclined to look on the bright side of life. You are self-willed, your hand indicates success. A. FISHER, Salesman. You are earnestly striving after a fortune; your efforts will be rewarded, but some time must elapse first. SAM MATHIS, Druggist. You are quick, alert, nervous and very sensitive; there is literary, artistic ability shown in your hand. T. H. CARTWRIGHT, Insurance Agent. A painstaking and persevering nature is shown in your hand. You have a very courageous disposition and would make a steadfast friend.

Palmer House (formerly St. James), 325 South Main street, Room 6, CHARGES 50c and $1.00. Prof. Sterling does not publish private readings in the daily paper.
